EATING & DRINKING

EKSTEDT AT THE YARD

Our flagship restaurant brings Michelin starred chef Niklas Ekstedt's signature style of wood fired 'old Nordic' cooking to the UK for the very first time. Ekstedt at The Yard focuses on Scandinavian cooking techniques using the very best seasonal British ingredients; featuring a menu of signature dishes, alongside an inventive cocktail menu and extensive wine list.

THE 40 ELEPHANTS

The hub of the hotel, open all day until late serving everything from barista-served coffee to signature cocktails, local craft beers and ciders. It's a place to roll up your sleeves and get social.

THE PARLOUR

The Parlour draws on tales of Britain's Victorian explorers. A very British love affair with spice. Indulge in an Afternoon Tea with a twist at The Parlour. This afternoon tea place in Central London distinctly draws inspiration from its historical building and significant people that spent their time here.

SIBIN

Síbin means home-made whisky in Irish and pays tribute to the illicit clubs where alcoholic beverages were sold without a license. Step into a clandestine haven of sophistication and discover a secret haven dedicated to heritage whiskies, premium wines and Champagnes.

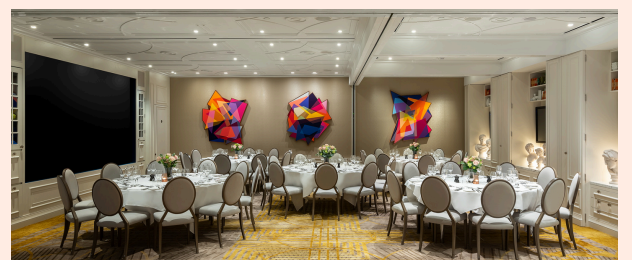

IN ROOM DINING

Your stay is not complete without savouring a hearty breakfast. Indulge in the usual suspects or choose lighter options at The Yard restaurant. The perfect way to start your day. Alternatively, enjoy your favourites from the luxury of your room with our Room Service menus.

GRACE & FAVOUR

Grace & Favour is a non-traditional event space home to one of the largest LCD screens in a hotel in London. Complete with delicately chosen lounge furniture, the space is perfect for social events, screenings & inspirational sessions. The celebration of the spirit of exploration at Great Scotland Yard is extended to Grace & Favour. Catered by our experienced team, all your F&B requirements, from classic comforts to healthy alternatives will be exquisitely provided.
