Location

There is a lot to see, admire and experience around Lindner Hotel Prague Castle. For example, the "Prague Eiffel Tower" on the Petřín Hill with its breathtaking views and the trip with the over 120-year-old Petřín cable car is an impressive experience for every visitor to Prague.

Rooms

Small time travels are always included in our approximately 138 elegant and spacious rooms and suites. Sometimes it's original 16th-century wooden joists that give a room that certain something, sometimes it's the view of the baroque Strahov monastery, sometimes it's historic decorative pieces that stylishly reflect the history of Prague. Combined with state-of-the-art technology and attractive furnishings, our rooms radiate an authentic, charming atmosphere that invites you to relax and feel good. History and modernity to dream about!

Food & Drink

Like our hotel, our restaurant is linked to the many eras and traditions of the Golden City. Here you can enjoy hearty Bohemian cuisine, Czech cuisine and international classics.

A special highlight is our large and beautiful terrace, which invites you outside with daily barbecues and a great atmosphere when the weather is nice. With around 30 seats, it also offers a festive and cozy setting for culinary events and can be rented exclusively. And so that nothing literally falls into the water, our terrace is equipped with reliable awnings!

Events

Friendly atmosphere, charming hosts and a varied culinary concept. All this awaits you at your meeting at Lindner Hotel Prague Castle. Whether it's product presentations, conferences, weddings or private family celebrations of any kind, our team will be happy to support you in implementing your event and ensure your complete satisfaction together with our partners on site. The five conference rooms, four of which are equipped with daylight, can accommodate a maximum of 160 people. The hotel restaurant can also be booked for festivities.
